

Early Special Education Programs

For Children with Disabilities

Primarily for children with more significant disabilities such as: deafness, blindness, and mental retardation.

Schools for specific learning disabilities (aka "brain injury," "minimal brain dysfunction") became more common in the 1940's.

Most private and/or residential. Quality and availability varied greatly.

Reality: for most children with disabilities special education programs

Brown v. Board of Education

United Stated Supreme Court (1954)

Public school segregation based on race is unconstitutional.

Court wrote

"To separate them from others ... solely because of their race generates a feeling of inferiority ... that may affect their hearts and minds in a way unlikely ever to be undone.

"It is doubtful that any child may reasonably be expected to succeed in life if he is denied the opportunity of an education.

"Such an opportunity \dots is a right that must be made available to all on equal terms."

Civil Rights Movement

1955-1956 Montgomery bus boycott
 1957 Central High School, Little Rock, AR
 1960 Woolworth lunch counter sit-in, Greensboro NC
 1961 Freedom Riders
 1963 March on Washington "I Have A Dream" speech

Nation's attention is focused on the fight for equal treatment of disenfranchised citizens

*
Elementary & Secondary Education Act
1965 Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) enacted by Congress to provide resources to help ensure that disadvantaged/underprivileged children had access to quality education.
1966 ESEA amended to establish a grant program to help states develop educational programs for children with disabilities. 1970 Grant program established under ESEA was replaced by the Education of the Handicapped Act.
L
	1
·
Catalyst Cases: PARC and Mills (1972)
Pennsylvania Assn. for Retarded Citizens v. Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (consent decree) ordering public schools to provide a free public education to all children with mental retardation appropriate to their learning capacities. Calling a halt to the labeling of thousands of children as 'uneducable'.
Mills v. District of Columbia Board of Education addressing the rights of children who were being excluded from public school on the basis of their emotional/behavioral handicapping conditions. Court ordered educational services and due process procedures be provided for children with any handicapping condition.
L
Congressional Investigation (1972)	-
"Of the more than 8 million children with handicapping conditions requiring special education and related services only 3.9 million such children are receiving an appropriate education,
1.75 million are receiving no educational services at all, and 2.5 million are receiving an inappropriate education."

Congressional Investigation (1972) "The long-capp implications of those distillates are that public agronous and purposes will greatly and the factors of t
"The largy errore implications of these statistics are that public agentoires and apospoyers will apend billions of delians over the lifetimes of meas individuals to maintain such persons as dependents and it a maintain and the state to become processor and a secondary of the state of the time persons as dependents and it is a support of the state of the		7
"The largy errore implications of these statistics are that public agentoires and apospoyers will apend billions of delians over the lifetimes of meas individuals to maintain such persons as dependents and it a maintain and the state to become processor and a secondary of the state of the time persons as dependents and it is a support of the state of the	•
and taxpayers will apped billions of cloties over the lifetimes of a free individual to maintain state purposes as dependent and in a many visual to able to become productive obtains, contributing to society instead of being forced or orania burdens. Clothesting to society instead of being forced or orania burdens. Clothest, through such services, social increases their Indipendence, thus reducing hard dependence or society. Congressional Investigation (1972) Providing potassional annotes will ensure against persons medically individual and the services of the services families are no longer able to case for them and with themselves have removed or indicational envices. Sillions of others are segment on elucitational envices Sillions of others are segment environment or indicational envices. Sillions of others are segment environment or indicational envices Sillions of others are segment environment or indicational envices. Sillions of others are segment environment or indicational envices. Sillions of others are segmented environment or indicational environment or indication	Congressional Investigation (1972)
and taxpayers will apped billions of cloties over the lifetimes of a free individual to maintain state purposes as dependent and in a many visual to able to become productive obtains, contributing to society instead of being forced or orania burdens. Clothesting to society instead of being forced or orania burdens. Clothest, through such services, social increases their Indipendence, thus reducing hard dependence or society. Congressional Investigation (1972) Providing potassional annotes will ensure against persons medically individual and the services of the services families are no longer able to case for them and with themselves have removed or indicational envices. Sillions of others are segment on elucitational envices Sillions of others are segment environment or indicational envices. Sillions of others are segment environment or indicational envices Sillions of others are segment environment or indicational envices. Sillions of others are segment environment or indicational envices. Sillions of others are segmented environment or indicational environment or indication
These individuals to maintain such persons as dependents and in a minimal successable filespark with proper educations and exists. Society instead of being forced in remain hardens. Chiera, through such a minice, would increase their independence, thus reducing their dependence on society. "Providing educational services will ensure against persons needlessly being forced in oil restitutional seelings. Chiera end of the providence of the individual seelings are not society." Congressional Investigation (1972) "Providing educational services will ensure against persons needlessly being forced into institutional seelings. Chiera need only look at public residence institutions to their functional of persons where families are no longer able to use for them and who themselves have each year to maintain persons in these authuman conditions" Congressional Investigation (1972) "Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advicesting life! the rights of their children because they have been errorecastly led to believe that their children because they have been errorecastly led to believe that their children because they have been errorecastly led to believe that their children because they have been errorecastly led to believe that their children because they have been errorecastly led to believe that their children because they have been errorecastly led to believe that their children because they have been errorecastly led to believe that their children because they have been errorecastly led to believe that their children because they have been errorecastly led to believe the deep children at some their children because they have been errorecastly led to believe that the county is continued usilizing the concept to a sease.
Congressional Investigation (1972) *Providing educational services Will ensure against persons needlessly tells for confidential or an organization claims. In the confidential persons in these subhuman conditions
Congressional Investigation (1972) Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [Inc] the rights of their independence. These subhuman conditions. Congressional Investigation (1972) Providing educational services will ensure against persons needlessly being forced into institutional settings. One need only lock at public residential institutions is defined uncertainty of the public residential institutions in the state of the public residential institutions in the forced from the public residence in the public resi	minimally acceptable lifestyle. With proper education services,
Congressional Investigation (1972) "Providing educational services will ensure against persons needlessly being forced and institutions to first drousands of persons whose families are no longer date to see the end and no hermateless have arrived and to restrict the end and not hermateless have an ender the end and the hermateless have an ender the end and the hermateless have an ender the end and the hermateless have an end and the hermatel	society instead of being forced to remain burdens. Others, through
Providing educational services will ensure against persons needlessly being forced into institutional settings. One need only took at public residential institutions to find thousands of persons whose families are no longer able to care for them and who themselves have received no educational services. Billions of dollars are expended each year to maintain persons in these subhuman conditions * Congressional Investigation (1972) Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure
Providing educational services will ensure against persons needlessly being forced into institutional settings. One need only took at public residential institutions to find thousands of persons whose families are no longer able to care for them and who themselves have received no educational services. Billions of dollars are expended each year to maintain persons in these subhuman conditions * Congressional Investigation (1972) Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure
Providing educational services will ensure against persons needlessly being forced into institutional settings. One need only took at public residential institutions to find thousands of persons whose families are no longer able to care for them and who themselves have received no educational services. Billions of dollars are expended each year to maintain persons in these subhuman conditions * Congressional Investigation (1972) Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure
Providing educational services will ensure against persons needlessly being forced into institutional settings. One need only took at public residential institutions to find thousands of persons whose families are no longer able to care for them and who themselves have received no educational services. Billions of dollars are expended each year to maintain persons in these subhuman conditions * Congressional Investigation (1972) Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure
Providing educational services will ensure against persons needlessly being forced into institutional settings. One need only took at public residential institutions to find thousands of persons whose families are no longer able to care for them and who themselves have received no educational services. Billions of dollars are expended each year to maintain persons in these subhuman conditions * Congressional Investigation (1972) Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure
Providing educational services will ensure against persons needlessly being forced into institutional settings. One need only took at public residential institutions to find thousands of persons whose families are no longer able to care for them and who themselves have received no educational services. Billions of dollars are expended each year to maintain persons in these subhuman conditions * Congressional Investigation (1972) Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure
Providing educational services will ensure against persons needlessly being forced into institutional settings. One need only took at public residential institutions to find thousands of persons whose families are no longer able to care for them and who themselves have received no educational services. Billions of dollars are expended each year to maintain persons in these subhuman conditions * Congressional Investigation (1972) Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure
Providing educational services will ensure against persons needlessly being forced into institutional settings. One need only took at public residential institutions to find thousands of persons whose families are no longer able to care for them and who themselves have received no educational services. Billions of dollars are expended each year to maintain persons in these subhuman conditions * Congressional Investigation (1972) Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure
Providing educational services will ensure against persons needlessly being forced into institutional settings. One need only took at public residential institutions to find thousands of persons whose families are no longer able to care for them and who themselves have received no educational services. Billions of dollars are expended each year to maintain persons in these subhuman conditions * Congressional Investigation (1972) Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure
Providing educational services will ensure against persons needlessly being forced into institutional settings. One need only took at public residential institutions to find thousands of persons whose families are no longer able to care for them and who themselves have received no educational services. Billions of dollars are expended each year to maintain persons in these subhuman conditions * Congressional Investigation (1972) Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure		٦
Providing educational services will ensure against persons needlessly being forced into institutional settings. One need only took at public residential institutions to find thousands of persons whose families are no longer able to care for them and who themselves have received no educational services. Billions of dollars are expended each year to maintain persons in these subhuman conditions * Congressional Investigation (1972) Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure
Providing educational services will ensure against persons needlessly being forced into institutional settings. One need only took at public residential institutions to find thousands of persons whose families are no longer able to care for them and who themselves have received no educational services. Billions of dollars are expended each year to maintain persons in these subhuman conditions * Congressional Investigation (1972) Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure	Congressional Investigation (1972)
being forced into institutional settings. One need only look at public residential institutions to find thousands of persons whose families are no longer able to care for them and who themselves have received no educational services. Billions of dollars are expended each year to maintain persons in these subhuman conditions" Congressional Investigation (1972)* Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children beause they have been amongously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives! It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue tulizing the courts to assure	Congressional investigation (1972)
being forced into institutional settings. One need only look at public residential institutions to find thousands of persons whose families are no longer able to care for them and who themselves have received no educational services. Billions of dollars are expended each year to maintain persons in these subhuman conditions" Congressional Investigation (1972)* Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children beause they have been amongously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives! It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue tulizing the courts to assure residential institutions to find thousands of persons whose families are no longer able to care for them and who themselves have received no educational services. Billions of dollars are expended each year to maintain persons in these subhuman conditions received no educational services. Billions of dollars are expended each year to maintain persons in these subhuman conditions " Congressional Investigation (1972) *Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [tor] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courst to assure	residential institutions to find thousands of persons whose families	-
Congressional Investigation (1972) "Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [tof] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children he will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure	received no educational services. Billions of dollars are expended
"Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure	each year to maintain persons in these subnuman conditions	-
"Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure
"Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure
"Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure
"Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure
"Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure
"Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure
"Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure
"Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure
"Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure
"Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure		7
"Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure
advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure	Congressional Investigation (1972)
advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure
advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been erroneously led to believe that their children will not be able to lead meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure	"Parents of handicapped children all too frequently are not able to meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents throughout the country to continue utilizing the courts to assure	advocate [for] the rights of their children because they have been meaningful lives It should not be necessary for parents
		J

Massachusetts: Chapter 766 (1974)	-
	-
	-
	-
	-
	-
	7
The Education of All Handicapped Children	_
Act of 1975	_
Enacted so that all children with disabilities would "have a right to education, and to establish a process by which State and local educational agencies may be held accountable for providing educational services for all handicapped children." United States Code Congressional and Administrative News 1975	-
	-
	-
	-
	٦
Individuals with Disabilities Education Act	_ of 2004	-
" to ensure that all children with disabilities have available to them a free appropriate public education that emphasizes special education and related services designed to meet their unique needs	_ and prepare them for further education , employment, and independent living, and "
"to ensure that the rights of children with disabilities and parents of such children are protected. "
Congressional Statement of Purpose
	-

Current Special Education Laws

Individuals with Disabilities Education Act Statute at 20 USC 1400 et seq. Regulations at 34 CFR Part 300

Massachusetts Children with Special Needs

Statute at MGL c. 71B Regulations at 603 CMR 28.00

Future Special Education Webinars

The Special Education Process

November 3rd
A concise explanation of the special education process in Massachusetts.

The "State" of Special Education in Massachusetts

Decembers 1st An exploration of school district noncompliance with special education law and its human consequences.

Special Education Advocacy Basics

January 5th
Information everyone needs to know to work knowledgeably with school personnel.

Understanding Standardized Tests

February 2nd Translating percentiles, standard scores, subtest scores, standard deviations and other psychometric terms into understandable, useable information.

Future Special Education Webinars

Selected Topics: I

March 1st A Team meeting participants, IEPs v Section 504 Plans, stay put rights, independent evaluations, least restrictive environment, written notice.

Selected Topics: II

April 5th Special issues that arise when a student with disabilities reaches the ages of 3, 14, 18 and 22.

Litigation at the Bureau of Special Education Appeals

May 3rd
Attorney Peter Hahn discusses key issues related to litigating special education matters at the BSEA.

Areas of Practice

Probate Administration
Guardianship & Conservatorship
Long Term Care & MassHealth Planning
Special Needs Planning
Estate Planning
Special Education
Trust Administration

Questions about this webinar?
Contrate Eller Chambers
Contact: Ellen Chambers
(617) 267-9700 Ext. 520
ec@margolis.com
Thank you
,